Action packed fun filled activities

Our Club offers an exciting choice of play and development opportunities that revolve around a Hall; with four brilliant activity areas, a Library offering Art/Craft activities, IT and Media skills, together with two well equipped outside spaces that offer a host of physical and energetic activities for children of all ages.

Themed Weeks are an especially popular feature, as well as special events such as: Quizzes, Super Hero sessions and festive events.

"Staff deployment is effective and they give high supervision to children at all times."

HEALTHY FOOD PROVIDED:

Meal times are a vital part in bringing everyone together and thanks to our new Chef, half-termly meal plans are provided that meet the dietary needs of our children.

"It's a smashing start and end to my children's day at Sonning. They love it and really look forward to the variety of play and music."

Jennifer

"I think after school club has the best toys and the food is always different and really good!"

Dylan (aged 8)

"Children are motivated to follow their own ideas, be independent learners and take part in outdoor and indoor activities"

Ofsted

"The staff are great and give me true reassurance that my child is safe, happy, learning and building their all-round social interactions."
